IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 21, 2022

Mr. CROW (for himself and Mr. ROUZER) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Financial Services

---

A BILL

To authorize the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development to make grants to States and Indian tribes to support local resiliency offices, and for other purposes.

1       *Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,*

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Championing Local 5 Efforts to Advance Resilience Act of 2022” or the 6 “CLEAR Act of 2022”.

7 SEC. 2. RESILIENCY OFFICE GRANTS.

8       (a) AUTHORITY.—The Secretary of Housing and 9 Urban Development, in consultation with the Adminis-

1 trator of the Federal Emergency Management Agency, the 2 Secretary of Commerce, and the Secretary of the Interior,
3 may make grants under this section to States and Indian 4 tribes that are eligible for such grants pursuant to sub-5 section (b) for use in accordance with subsection (c).

6 (b) ELIGIBILITY.—To be eligible for a grant under 7 this section, a State or Indian tribe shall establish and 8 maintain, or maintain, an office specifically responsible for 9 issues relating to resilience and that has among its duties 10 the following:

11 (1) To develop and update, not less frequently
12 than every 5 years, a resiliency framework, in con-
13 sultation with vulnerable and impacted communities, 14 that identifies current and projected risks and 15 vulnerabilities due to climate change and other chal-
16 lenges, in each of the areas of—

17 (A) environmental and natural hazards;
18 (B) the economy and workforce;
19 (C) infrastructure;
20 (D) health and social services; and 21 (E) housing.

22 (2) To implement programming to address risks
23 and vulnerabilities identified in the resiliency frame-24 work, including—

(A) providing technical assistance to local governments for the implementation of resilience planning;

(B) assisting State or tribal agencies in the implementation of resilience policies and procedures;

10 (D) supporting long-term community pre-
11 disaster mitigation and recovery efforts and fa-
12 cilitating access to resources before and after a 13 disaster.

18 (c) USE.—Amounts from a grant under this section 19 may be used by the grantee, or any unit of local govern-20 ment that is a subgrantee of such grantee, only for—

(1) costs of establishing or maintaining, or both, a resiliency office and implementing resiliency programming, developing resilience planning and analytic tools, enhancing community planning and capacity, and providing technical assistance, in ac-

1 cordance with the requirements of subsection (b); 2 and

3 (2) payment of any non-Federal share required
4 in connection with a Federal program undertaken to 5 carry out any of the purposes of subsection (b)(2).

6 (d) APPLICATIONS.—To apply for a grant under this 7 section, a State or Indian tribe shall submit an application
8 at such time, in such form, and containing such informa-
9 tion as the Secretary may prescribe.

10 (e) PRIORITY.—In awarding grants under this sec-
11 tion to States, the Secretary shall give priority to applica-12 tions that—

13 (1) demonstrate the greatest need for assistance
14 under this section;

15 (2) identify vulnerabilities and risks in dis-
16 advantaged communities and prioritize projects to 17 benefit such communities and promote equity in re-
18 silience;

19 (3) demonstrate a broad approach to resilience,
20 as such term is defined in subsection (j)(3);

21 (4) provide for the grantee to work collabor-22 atively with multiple stakeholders impacted by the 23 identified risks and vulnerabilities, including the for-24 mation of a permanent climate resilience advisory 25 task force that includes individuals—

(A) representing each of the areas identified in subsection (b)(1);

(B) representing disadvantaged communities;

(C) representing labor, worker, and work-force development:

(D) representing tribal nations or tribal communities;

(E) representing local governments;

10 (F) having experience in climate-related 11 disaster preparedness, response, and recovery;
12 and

(G) having public health expertise; and

14                         (5) provide for subgrants to entities that adhere 15                         to prevailing wage provisions as published by the 16                         Department of Labor.

17 (f) AMOUNT.—The Secretary shall award grants in 18 an amount sufficient to provide funding to a grantee to 19 cover a minimum of 24 months of grant activities

20       (g) TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.—The Secretary shall, 21 in consultation with the Administrator of the Federal 22 Emergency Management Agency, the Secretary of Com-
23 merce, the Secretary of the Interior, and such other heads
24 of Federal agencies as the Secretary considers appro-25 priate, provide technical assistance to grantees regarding

1 developing resiliency frameworks and implementing resil-
2 iency strategies.

3 (h) ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS.—Of any amounts made
4 available for grants under this section, the Secretary may 5 use 1.0 percent for costs of administering the program
6 under this section for such grants and for providing tech-
7 nical assistance under subsection (g).

8 (i) REPORTS TO HUD.—Not later than 90 days after 9 the end of each fiscal year for which a grantee receives
10 a grant under this section, the grantee shall submit a re-
11 port to the Secretary regarding the use of such grant 12 amounts, which shall include—

13 (1) a description of the activities undertaken by 14 the grantee using such grant amounts;
15 (2) identification of the costs of each of the 16 services provided using such grant amounts; and 17 (3) assessments of the effectiveness of the grant 18 program under this section and the programs car-19 ried out by the resiliency office of the grantee and 20 recommendations for improving such programs.

21 (j) DEFINITIONS.—

22 (1) DISADVANTAGED COMMUNITY.—The term
23 “disadvantaged community” means a community
24 that is determined by the Secretary to meet the in-25 terim definition of a disadvantaged community using

1 the indicators and guidelines set forth in the Memo-
2 randum for the Heads of Departments and Agencies
3 relating to Interim Implementation Guidance for the 4 Justice40 Initiative, issued by the Director of the 5 Office of Management and Budget, Chair of the 6 Council on Environmental Quality, and the National 7 Climate Advisor on July 20, 2021 (M–21–28).

8                 (2) GRANTEE.—The term “grantee” means a 9 State or Indian tribe to which a grant under this 10 section is made.

11                 (3) INDIAN TRIBE.—The term “Indian tribe” 12 has the meaning given such term in section 4 of the 13 Native American Housing and Self-Determination
14 Act of 1996 (25 U.S.C. 4103).

15                 (4) RESILIENCE.—The term “resilience” 16 means, with respect to a community, the ability to 17 rebound, positively adapt to, or thrive amidst chang-
18 ing conditions or challenges, including human-caused 19 and natural disasters, and to maintain quality of 20 life, healthy growth, durable systems, economic vital-21 ity, and conservation of resources for present and 22 future generations.

23                 (5) SECRETARY.—The term “Secretary” means 24 the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.

1                     (6) STATE.—The term “State” means a State
2                     of the United States, the District of Columbia, the 3                     Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, Guam, the Northern 4                     Mariana Islands, the Virgin Islands, and American 5                     Samoa.

6                     (k) FUNDING.—

7                     (1) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—
8                     There is authorized to be appropriated for grants 9                     under this section $200,000,000 for each of fiscal 10                    years 2022 through 2027.

11                    (2) SET-ASIDE FOR INDIAN TRIBES.—Of any 12                    amounts appropriated for a fiscal year for grants
13                    under this section, the Secretary shall reserve 10
14                    percent for grants to Indian tribes. The Secretary 15                    shall allocate such amounts reserved, among Indian 16                    tribes having applications for grants under this section 17                    for such fiscal year approved by the Secretary, 18                    on the basis of a competition conducted pursuant to 19                    specific criteria for the selection of Indian tribes to 20                    receive such amounts. The criteria shall be contained 21                    in a regulation promulgated by the Secretary, in 22                    consultation with the Secretary of the Interior, after 23                    notice and opportunity for public comment.
